

Wood Badge

Boy Scout Leader Wood Badge is the advanced training program for Boy Scout troop leaders. Scoutmasters, assistant Scoutmasters, troop committee members, and other Scouters directly related to Boy Scout troop operation may attend. The course will be operated in accordance with established national policies.

Selection of Participants. Each Scouter invited to participate in Wood Badge training must have completed Scoutmastership Fundamentals, and should be in a position directly related to Boy Scout troop operation. Contact your district president, district commissioner, district training chair, or district executive to request an invitation.

Physical Requirements. This course will take place in an outdoor environment. All will sleep under canvas and take part in an active program, including an overnight hike. This is a Class 3 activity and requires a current and completed Personal Health and Medical Record Form.

Dates and Locations. The pre-course orientation is February 27, 1999, starting at 2 p.m. It will be held in Austin. The course will be conducted over three alternating weekends at Camp Tom Wooten on the Lost Pines Scout Reservation. The first weekend begins on Saturday morning and continues to Sunday afternoon. The second and third weekends begin Friday evening and continue to Sunday. The third weekend concludes late Sunday Evening. The dates are March 27-28, April 9-11, and April 23-25. Two mid-week patrol meetings will be scheduled at the patrol's convenience. There will also be a 90-day follow-up on Saturday, July 24, 1999.

Cost. The cost of the course is $150. A $50 deposit is required on return of the acceptance of invitation.

Act Now. The enrollment for the course is limited. Applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Additional Information. You may obtain additional information from the Scout Service Center at 512-926-6363 (ask for Keri) or from Carey Dunlap at 512-288-6030. You may also E-mail Course Director James Hall at jhall2@mailgw.dot.state.tx.us.
